Gospel Luke 4:1-13

The temptation in the wilderness

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says:

He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you, and again:

They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said: You must not put the Lord your God to the test.' Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time.

Outdoor Stations of the Cross

An ideal way to journey with the Lord & all who are suffering for Lent.

Reflect / Pray / Act

(From Luke 4:1-13)

'Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days'

To help us reject Satan and all his empty promises we have been filled with the Holy Spirit at Baptism and Confirmation. Every time we pray, reflect on God's Word, receive the Eucharist, celebrate God's Love and Mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation we are topping up the presence of the Holy Spirit within us. With our lives filled with the Holy Spirit, with God making his home within us, there will be no room for the destructive power of evil to find a space to grow in our hearts or to push us off the right path.

Reflect

What fills your heart? Is it love of God and neighbour? Is it bitterness or fear or selfishness things that do not come from God?

Pray

Open your heart to the Lord. Invite the Lord to do a spring clean in your heart so that the Holy Spirit can reclaim that sacred space within you.

Act

During these days of Lent give more time to prayer - reflect on the Word of God, go to Mass and receive the Eucharist more often, make a decision to go to confession. You will be topping up the presence of the Holy Spirit and like Jesus be better able to resist the attraction of evil.

Prayer for Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth
and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.

Pray for Ukraine

Loving God,
We pray for the people of Ukraine,
for all those suffering or afraid,
that you will be close to them and protect them.
We pray for world leaders,
for compassion, strength and wisdom

to guide their choices.
We pray for the world
that in this moment of crisis, we may reach out in solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need.
May we walk in your ways
so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world.
Amen.
