Over the past eight years the Diocesan Draw has raised over €700,000 and is a very valuable source of support for the work carried out in the Cathedral. This past year saw the installation and blessing of the new baptismal font which has brought to completion the reordering of the Sanctuary.

The draw is generously supported by parishioners of the 42 parishes of the diocese. Bishop Niall Coll, Bishop of Ossory wishes to thank all supporters of the draw for their spirit and commitment to St. Mary's Cathedral and its beauty as a house of prayer and worship which he says is a true adornment to the religious and the cultural landscape of Kilkenny City and the wider Diocese.

The draw is held monthly in Chapter House – generally the last Wednesday of every month – at 8pm. We encourage your support for St. Mary's Cathedral Restoration Fund Draw and ask again for your renewed support for next year. If you would like to subscribe to the draw please contact Fr.
